

How to Get There

Take the Angeles Exit (Marquee Mall) on the NLEX (45 minutes from Balintawak toll gate). At the rotonda, follow the Magalang Road leading to the town plaza (approximately 10 km), turn left at Jollibee to get to the Magalang Municipal Hall. Then turn right at the Triple V gasoline station to head towards Brgy. Ayala.

To get to Brgy. Ayala from Marquee Mall at the Angeles Exit, you will pass several subdivisions and baranggays, in the following order: Punta Verde Subdivision, Nouveau Subdivision, Amaia Subdivision, Brgy. San Jose (where the Magalang Welcome arch is located), Brgy. San Francisco, Brgy. San Pedro No. 2, Brgy. San Pedro No. 1 (where the public market is located), Brgy. San Nicolas No. 2, Brgy. San Pablo, (where you'll find the Dr. Andres Luciano Memorial Hospital), and last Brgy. San Agustin (where the Pampanga Cultural College is located). At Brgy. Ayala, go past a resort on the left and head straight. Pass on a concrete bridge and turn right at the street with the sign pointing to Abe's Farm. Please refer to map.

Commuting to Abe's Farm

From Cubao, take a bus traveling north (Baguio, Dagupan, Tarlac). Inform the driver that you will get down at the Marquee Mall terminal near the Angeles exit. At Marquee Mall, you will find jeeps that will take you to Magalang (about 30-minute ride). Ask the driver to drop you off at the Magalang Municipal Hall. From there, take a tricycle going to Abe's Farm (15-minute ride).
